

Bioethics Day: Day Of

Group 1: Training the Judges

You will also be responsible for being escorts/ambassadors.

Your task is to prepare a brief presentation explaining to the judges:

- what we've studied
- how we've prepared
- what we want them to look for

Ms. Smyth will have response sheets and rubrics for evaluating your presentations on that day – you will also need to explain to the judges how to use those.

Group 2: The Cell Lab

- Addison
- Chris
- Dyasia
- Alexis

You all will be working with Mrs. Ward to facilitate the cell lab that day. You will need to help her set up before the first session and clean up after the last session.

Group 3: Center 1

You will be facilitating Center 1 in the multi-purpose room. You will have to set up your center and put all the materials away after your third session.

Group 4: Center 2

You will be facilitating Center 2 in the multi-purpose room. You will have to set up your center and put all the materials away after your third session.

Group 5: Center 3

You will be facilitating Center 3 in the multi-purpose room. You will have to set up your center and put all the materials away after your third session.

Group 6: The Seminar

You will be facilitating the Seminar in _____.

Group 7: Documentarians

You will be responsible for filming all of the action of the day – you’ll need to visit each session to get footage, and make sure you get footage of as much of the events as possible. You may also want to interview the participants about what they’ve learned, and if we have any news crews on campus, you may want to get some tips and advice from them at some point. You will also be responsible for editing the video, and this will require time outside of school.

Group 8: Escorts/Ambassadors

Your task is to keep things running smoothly. This may involve:

- Dressing appropriately

- black pants, white shirt, tie for gentlemen
- black skirt, white top, black flats for ladies)
- Greeting and entertaining dignitaries and guests
- Telling people where to go
- Escorting groups from one session to another
- Helping serve food
- Running errands
- Delivering messages
- Anything else that needs to be done

You will need to choose a Captain. This person will keep the schedule and make sure that we are all on schedule, and will assign escorts and ambassadors to tasks to keep things running smoothly.

Evaluation

Your judges will be using the following rubric to evaluate your performance on Bioethics Day.
